

Sponsored by:

Parkinson's disease program

for African-American patients and families

Saturday, May 18th, 2024 | 10am - 2pm

Cal State East Bay Oakland Center
1000 Broadway, #109
Oakland, CA 94607
(Near 12th Street BART station)

Ideally for those diagnosed in the last few years, families, and friends. Join us for this free program. Lunch included.

Hear from a movement disorder specialist with facts on symptoms and treatments for PD, learn about educational resources, meet with community agencies offering support groups and exercise programs, and sign up for research studies.

Event location, directions, and parking:

<https://ce.csueastbay.edu/conference/index.html#location>

To register, please email: aaron.daley@ucsf.edu

Co-hosted by:

UCSF Weill Institute for Neurosciences

